

Deposition of Jim Jack - - by Eugene Miller

1 Q (EM) Do you think polygraphs are a good tool for law enforcement
2 people?

3 A (Jack) I think they can be. Yes.

4 Q (EM) So why did you think it was funny when I asked you whether or
5 not you would take a polygraph? And you laughed about it.

6 A (Jack) I don't recall why – if I did.

7 Q (EM) Did you?

8 A (Jack) Pardon me?

9 Q (EM) Did you laugh?

10 A (Jack) I don't know – I don't regui-remember why—if I did.

11 Q (EM) That's why – but I'm asking you – did you?

12 A (Jack) I don't know.

13 Q (EM) You don't know? Would think it's funny if somebody asked you
14 to take a polygraph?

15 A (Jack) Maybe under certain circumstances.

16 Q (EM) Well, under what circumstances that I asked you-would you
17 think it was funny?

18 A (Jack) I don't right now.

19 Q (EM) Is there any reason why you wouldn't take a polygraph?

20 (Boyd) Object to the form of the question. It deals with the advice of 21 counsel and he's not required to testify with regard to advice given to him by his 22 attorney with regard to the polygraph test.

- 1 Q (EM) You think polygraphs are pretty reliable Sheriff?
- 2 A (Jack) I think they can be a tool. I don't think they're 100% reliable, no.
- 3 Q (EM) So, if I was to tell you that I took a polygraph with a man who has
- 4 2 pages of credentials—and I passed – what would you say?
- 5 A (Jack) I think that
- 6 (EM) I know it does.
