

DEPOSITION OF JAMES ROY MOORE – BY EUGENE MILLER

1 Q (EM) I guess, are you aware that I personally went to the Sheriff's office to talk
2 to him at anytime?

3 A (JR) The only think that I know is what came out in the , in the Sheriff's
4 testimony because the question was raised about you being in his office and he, you
5 said you told me to GET THE HELL OUT AND I, AND I REMEMBER THE
6 SHERIFF SAID THAT' PRECISELY WHAT I TOLD YOU. That is the first time
7 that I heard that you were in his office and that's the last time I heard you were in his 8 office.

9 Q (EM) Do you know –

10 A (JR) And that's all I know about you being in his office.

11 Q (EM) Ok, ok. Do you know of anytime that the Sheriff has gotten angry and told 12 somebody to get the hell out of his office?

13 A (JR) No, but he probably has—

14 Q (EM) With, with anybody else?

15 A (JR) Probably has.

16 Q (EM) Okay, so that would be an indication when he says get the hell out of my 17 office that he was angry?

18 A (JR) He's probably told one of his Deputies that.

19 Q (EM) But that would be

20 A (JR) --tired of listening to him, ah.

21 Q (EM) THAT WOULD BE IN YOUR OPINION, A, A, STATEMENT OF

DEPOSITION OF JAMES ROY MOORE – BY EUGENE MILLER

1 ANGER?

2 A (JR) THAT IS POSSIBLE HE COULD SAY THAT, MR. MILLER.

3 Q (EM) Well, but I'm not saying possible; I 'm saying if he made that statement
4 would that be, ah, an indication of anger towards an individual?

5 A (JR) No, no, not him.

6 (EM) But I thought you just mentioned earlier—

7 A (JR) He jokingly you say you get the hell out of my office.

8 Q (EM) Well, we aren't talking about jokingly, we were talking about a discussion
9 I had with the County Sheriff.

10 A (JR) And he said he told you that was precisely what I said, when you asked
11 him. If you told me to get the hell out of your office. He said that's precisely what I 12 said.
